A LETTER FROM THE ADMIN AWARDS

The Admin Awards, serving the Houston & Gulf Coast Region, celebrated the amazing spirit, heart, and expertise of the region's most extraordinary Administrative Professionals on April 4th at the Royal Sonesta Houston Galleria Hotel.

This year's program broke every record imaginable - from participating companies, to nominations, to event attendees - and that's a direct reflection of one thing; how much this region loves and appreciates its Administrative Professionals. And that love and appreciation was electric!

We saw companies rally around their Nominees in record numbers. From lip-syncing and dancing like their lives depended on it to showcasing the most imaginative displays of enthusiasm through 'Good as Gold' outfits and costumes, their dedication was undeniable.

And the team spirit? Remarkable! Companies went crazy showcasing their creativity in all kinds of amazing ways to show their Admins how excited they were to be there in support and appreciation for all that they do to make their leaders and organizations successful.

Houston and Gulf Coast region - you brought the heat this year, and we thank you for kicking off our 2024 season in such an electrifying way!

And lastly, to every executive who took the time to nominate and show up - you are exactly what modern-day Administrative Professionals want and need in their careers as they continue to show up every day for you.

On behalf of the Admin Awards and the hundreds of Administrative Professionals in this year's program, we are incredibly grateful, and we thank you.

COLLEEN BARRETT: SERVANT LEADER AND SUPERSTAR

When The Admin Awards was launched in 2012, we sat down with Colleen Barrett to ask her for her thoughts and experiences on the administrative profession. Her answers from that September interview, edited for brevity; are below:

What did you like most about being a secretary?

I like to serve so you have to start there. I loved to solve problems. And I loved to give exemplary or positive customer service delivery on behalf of whomever I was working for. Life is all about relationships... you have an opportunity in the administrative group to form more relationships than probably any other position – even much higher up on that so-called ladder because you are very often that first point of contact with the outside world or the customer... life is just one big grassroots campaign as far as I'm concerned.

What did you like the least?

I didn't like anything that was routine. I loved to master projects, but, for example, filing was only interesting to me because I loved to be able to find anything that anyone was looking for... I've never liked rote work. (But) there's some that goes in every job no matter what position you're in.

What was the most challenging aspect of serving Herb Kelleher?

Being a nanny for 45 years for a man who has always thought he was 17 regardless of any year that was added to his personal calendar! He was a great servant leader. He loved life and you almost couldn't be around him and not catch that love of life and love of people.

And the best aspect?

It was truly feeling his egalitarian spirit and appreciating the fact that he valued my judgment and thinking as a team member.

Did you ever think you would rise from Secretary to President and COO of Southwest Airlines?

Quite honestly it wasn't something I wanted, and I never wanted to be COO—and I made that very clear to the Board—that isn't my strength. My strength is customer service and people and everything that touches people, and, honestly, being President and COO wasn't my favorite position at Southwest...my favorite position was Executive Vice President-Customers. Customer to us means employees, passengers, and shareholders, so I could really touch everything. I could touch every department. And as President... I had to do a lot more external things... I did them... I can't say I hated them... (but) I like to get down and dirty and really roll up my sleeves.

What advice do you have for Admins?

Love. Everybody. Just love. It's a word that corporate America doesn't use very much... always remember where you came from – so that you know how far you've come...I don't think most of us start out thinking we're going to be the President of the United States or the CEO of a company... and I think... be humble and appreciate what you get. To me psychic satisfaction is 10 times more important than pay or title.

Be authentic. Be real. Remember who you are.

ELIZABETH LEMEROND

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER, REALTOR.COM

Elizabeth Lemerond, affectionally called Biz, is the Executive Assistant to the Chief Revenue Officer of Realtor.com who leads a 500-person team with 8 direct reports. Biz serves the CRO as a strategic partner in such distinct ways he writes: "I have worked with numerous Executive Assistants over the past 30 years, but Biz has forever transformed the way I will work with an assistant going forward! Biz is an exceptionally effective thought partner and force multiplier, and she has raised my performance (and the performance of my whole team) to a whole new level." Biz is a master at motivating and cajoling teams through challenges and change. No one blinks an eye when she runs an SVP level meeting on her leader's behalf while he's traveling. People use many phrases to describe her - force multiplier, conductor, right hand - and our team created a new word, "Bizability", because if Biz has visibility to a project or an issue, they know that it will be managed and resolved.
